PROFILE

After many years on the pitch, in 2016 I begun, almost as a joke, to be involved in the scouting area of my last professional club as a player, and started to grew up in the years covering both First Team and Youth Sector games, both in the national and in the international leagues, reaching in these last years the position of Chief Scout for SPAL here in Italy. Now, with the “non-registration” of the club for the next championship, I’m looking for a new opportunity in this area, and I’d like to consider not only the national environment, but also the international one: I’m very open to various opportunities that may come out in the scouting area of a professional club depending on its needs.

I’m eager to take a further step forward and I’m ready to get involved in a new experience.
