

I am Jorge Rodríguez, I'm from Spain, I'm from Madrid, I am multilingual sports industry professional industry professional.

I have studied the degree in Tourism at the Rey Juan Carlos University. Later I studied the MBA Sports Management at the European University, at the Real Madrid University School.

I am highly interested in this job, because of the opportunity to combine one of my greatest passions and motivational drives in life, which are sports and business.

I have always dreamed of a career in sports management when I decided to go to the European University, at the Real Madrid University School.

I have done a lot of research online through LinkedIn and the website of your company, and I firmly believe that this is the right place for me to put all my skills and knowledge into practice.

I am very eager to continue learning and grow both personally and professionally.

I would like to contribute to the company all the knowledge acquired during my training at different universities, as well as my experience in different companies, and sectors, especially Stakeholders, teamwork, adaptability, creativity and orientation to results and problem solving.

I speak different languages such as Spanish, English and French, which can be valuable for the company since it allows me to communicate, with international clients and stakeholders.

Thank you in advance for taking the time to look my application and to review my resume.

Sincerely Jorge Rodríguez Sánchez.
