COOPERATION CONTRACT

Concerning cooperation on scouting, recruitment, player transfer and representation of the Agency.

1. General Clauses

1.1. This contract regulates the terms of cooperation between the above-mentioned parties.

1.2. The written and oral communication between the parties shall be performed in the language agreed by the parties or in one of the international circulation languages:

- ☐ English
- ☒ Swedish
- ☐ Danish

2. Responsibilities

2.1. The Scout will be responsible for the following:

2.1.1. Scouting of football players for the Agency.

2.1.2. Reaching out to Players and/or their Agents to help obtain a mandate for the Player or negotiate a direct representation contract.

2.1.3. Representing the Agency in talks and negotiations in The Scout's country of operation.

2.1.4. Maintaining contact with clients and associates of the Agency.

2.2. To carry out these duties, the Agency will provide the Scout with resources (e-mail address, business card, templates, etc...). The Scout may utilize these resources as long as a valid Cooperation Contract is in place.

2.3. The Scout is allowed to work under the Modyr Management AB name and present themselves as an associate of the Agency.

2.4. The Scout must regularly communicate with the Agency and inform them of any developments or news related to their duties.

3. Restrictions

3.1. The Scout may not approach any entities in the name of the Agency, unless there is written or verbal permission from the Agency.

3.2. The Scout may not use any resources received from the Agency to carry out private business with other companies or persons.

3.3. Any information the Scout receives from the Agency, (including but not limited to: Club Needs, Player Information, details of transfers, contracts and agreements) is strictly confidential, and shall be treated as such.

3.4. Misuse of this information may result in legal action against the Scout, and the Scout may be held accountable for any damages caused to the Agency.

4. Remuneration

4.1. The Scout is entitled to receive remuneration for any business the Agency conducts, where the Scout is involved.

If:

4.1.1 The Scout scouts a player and obtains a mandate from the Player's Agent. The Player is then transferred by the Agency:

The Scout is entitled to receive 10% of the Agency's commission relating to that particular transfer.

4.1.2. The Scout recruits a player, and successfully negotiates their representation contract with the Agency:

The Scout is entitled to receive 15% of the Agency's commission of any transfer or contract-extension relating to the particular player, during the course of that first representation contract with the Agency.

4.1.3. In the event that a player, recruited by the Scout to the Agency, extends his representation contract with the Agency, the Scout will be remunerated with 10% of the Agent Commission received by the Agency in relation to transfers or contract extensions of that player, conducted during the course of the new representation contract with the Agency, given that this cooperation contract has not expired in accordance with article 6.4, or been terminated in accordance with article 6.5.

4.2. Payment will be made to the Scout within 10 banking days of the Agency receiving the commission.

5. Compensation

5.1. The Scout may be compensated for expenses incurred while carrying out their duties. The compensation amount must be agreed on, on a case by case basis. The Agency will not pay any compensation for incurred expenses that have not been previously agreed on.

6. Final Clauses

6.1. Eventual litigations of any nature resulted along the duration of this contract shall be resolved amicably or by the competent authorities. In case no understanding is reached, the place of court action is TAS/CAS Lausanne (Tribunal Arbitral du Sport/Court of Arbitration for Sport).

6.2. This contract constitutes the entire understanding between the Agency and the Scout and supersedes and cancels all prior written and oral agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter of this contract.

6.3. This contract is limited to the terms and conditions of the present agreement and will constitute an associative link between the parties, entitling the Scout, to work under the name and brand of the Agency, however the parties continue to maintain their independence and autonomy, without any kind of financial solidarity between the parties concerning obligations not mentioned in this contract.

6.4. The present contract will enter into force, upon the signature of the parties and remain valid until 01/11/2026.

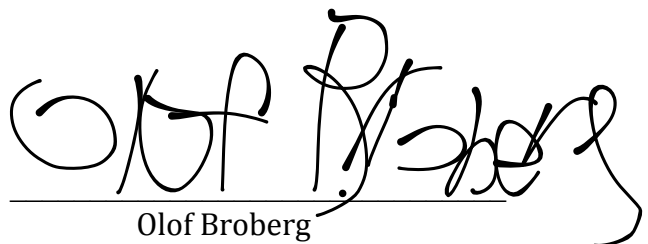

6.5. The contract may cease in case of major force or through the will of one of the parties and must be done in written form, with a 1-month notice.
