- Business development manager
Actually i am in charge of setting up partnerships on behalf of Epic Sports with other agencies worldwide in order to finalize deals in the world of the football market.
- Epic Sports
Milan, Lisbon, London
2021-2022
- Sales coordinator (football transfers)
In my role i had the responsibility to organize weekly tasks for every country sales team (Italy, France, Germany, Spain, Portugal, Netherlands, England) and find new strategies with them to increase our client portfolio. I had to report the results to my superiors analytically by identifying shortcomings and proposing improvements, ensuring adherence to laws and policies for every country.
- Quadratum
Milan
2018-2020
- CEO
In this role, thanks to a deep knowledge of the market i was asked to build a team of 8 to 10 persons that had to operate at every level in the football management field. Thanks to my leadership and communication skills, I implemented an operational modus operandi for every subordinate ensuring that the company would operate at the highest efficiency.

MY SKILLS

Independent Investor Advisor

I provided an operational guidance to various American and European potential investors in the football field. I gave advices suiting their requirements prioritizing their different financial and strategical interests. I critically evaluated investment options and educated clients regarding the best investment decisions to make, taking into account their risk tolerance and long-term goals.
